Annual Recognition Compliance Statement

Official recognition for a student organization is granted based on authorization from the Chancellor through the Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs and the Department of Student Life. Active recognized student organizations must satisfy the following conditions annually in order to maintain recognition:

- Contribute to the welfare or betterment of its members and the institution.
- Maintain objectives that complement the mission of the university.
- Be devoid of activities that conflict with the primary purposes of the university.
- Be devoid of any constitutional, ritualistic, or selective restriction which shall deny membership to any student for reason of his/her race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, national origin, age, disability, or veteran status. This policy shall not be interpreted in such a manner as to violate the legal rights of religious organizations or military organizations associated with the Armed Forces of the United States of America.
  not withstanding discrimination based on mandate by state and federal law
- Abide by all university policies and campus regulations, as well as federal, state, and local laws.
- Maintain at least five (5) full-time Missouri S&T students as active members.
- All officers must be enrolled in a minimum of six (6) class hours per semester; officers may not be on academic probation.
- Maintain an advisor who is a full-time (75% FTE) faculty or professional staff member of Missouri S&T.
- Complete Recognition Compliance Statement each fall semester and update the membership list online at https://itweb.mst.edu/auth-cgi-bin/cgiwrap/stulifeweb/idb.pl within the first three weeks of the fall and spring semesters.
- Meet risk management requirements each semester; http://studentlife.mst.edu/documents/Risk_Management_Form.pdf
- Maintain a current copy of the constitution with the Department of Student Life. Amendments that change the objectives of the organization must be approved by the Student Organization Recognition Committee, and/or the Office of the Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs. Other changes can be approved by Student Life.

It should be understood that the requirements for student organizations to become recognized or to maintain recognition are not limited to those listed above. Refer to http://studentlife.mst.edu/organizations/policies/pol_pro.html for further information. In addition, it should be understood that noncompliance with any of these requirements is grounds for revocation of recognition.

I, the undersigned president, affirm that the organization named below is in compliance, and will continue to comply with all the requirements as stated above.
